

Chanthai Wednesday's

Authentic Thai food cooked by our Guest Chef Pim.

Pim had her own very successful Thai food stall in Chelmsford market for many years, so you may well recognise her smiley face, if you do you will also know how fantastic her food is...!

Which makes us very excited to announce that she recently agreed to star as our Guest Chef on a Wednesday evening at Channels to bring you the very best Thai food you can experience without being in Thailand.

Take your taste buds on an adventure and book a table today...
